Petchaburi is a town situated about 80 kilometers north of Hua Hin and is easily accessible from Hua Hin and from Siam Legal Attorneys in Hua Hin as it is only an hour from our offices in Hua Hin.

Petchaburi has many attractions such as the old Royal Palace which is just outside of Petchaburi itself. The palace was built by King Mongkut in 1860. This was also the setting for the movie "The King and I". There is also Khoa Luang Caves in Petchaburi which houses 170 Buddha statues. Even though not in Petchaburi itself but 5 kilometers outside is still very accessible.

Petchaburi has a large shopping center complex and hospitals, however as stated before Petchaburi is only an hour from Hua Hin. Siam Legal has a branch office in Hua Hin at the Market Center. The law firm has many other branches, however Hua Hin makes our law firm accessible to one and all in towns not far out from Hua Hin itself. There is Petchaburi, Cha Am, Khao Takiab, Khao Tao, Pranburi, Paknampran, Khao Kalok and Prachuab

Siam Legal is the only law firm in Thailand with a such a large network of offices and a sizable compliment of foreign attorneys.
